

RAP 6.1
APPEAL AS A MATTER OF RIGHT

The appellate court "accepts review" of a trial court decision upon the timely filing in the trial court of a notice of appeal from a decision which is reviewable as a matter of right.

References

Rule 2.2, Decisions of the Superior Court Which May Be Appealed.

[Adopted effective July 1, 1976.]