POSITION PROFILE

Manages participation of diverse stakeholder groups within the Superior Court jurisdiction in the development, implementation and evaluation of significant, high-impact changes to judicial programs, court processes, practices, and staffing to improve the efficiency/effectiveness and integrity of court operations as well as enhance experiences and outcomes.

This is a senior professional level job that works with minimal supervision and applies independent judgment and decision making on complex, and highly technical, major projects.

This position will be designated to provide policy work for the Superior Court Judges' Association (SCJA). Work will be directed by the Executive Committee of the SCJA with day-to-day supervision by the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC).

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Plans, implements, monitors and evaluates court program components involving significant impact on judicial programs, including completion of complex or highly technical major projects and objectives.

The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) is a department of the Washington State Supreme Court. Established by state statute in 1957, the mission of the AOC is to advance the efficient and effective operation of the Washington State judicial system.

The AOC carries out its mission through formulation of policy and legislative initiatives, court technology development, educational programs, and program support for 433 Washington judges and their staff. The AOC draws its employees from a wide range of professions including legal, information technology, research, education, and judicial administration.

The agency is administered by an executive team that is committed to maintaining a dedicated and diverse workforce that provides the highest quality of customer service and continuously develops strategies for improving the performance and effectiveness of the court system in Washington.
