County of

In re:

and

Child(ren),
Petitioner(s),

Respondent(s).

No.

Temporary Order re:
Relocation of Child(ren)
(TMORELO)

I. Basis

- A motion for a temporary order restraining relocation of child(ren) ordering the return of the child(ren) was filed pursuant to RCW 26.09.510(1).
- A motion for a temporary order authorizing the intended relocation of the child(ren) pending final hearing was filed pursuant to RCW 26.09.510(2).

II. Findings

- 2.1 Notice of intended relocation of the child(ren).
 - The required notice of intended relocation of the child(ren) was provided in a timely manner.
 - The required notice of intended relocation of the child(ren) was not provided in a timely manner and the nonrelocating party was was not substantially prejudiced.
 - The relocating party did not comply with the notice requirements. Circumstances warrant issuance of an order authorizing the relocation and issuing a revised parenting plan/residential schedule.
- 2.2 The relocation of the child(ren):
 - has not occurred.
 - has occurred without agreement of the parties or a court order.

- 2.3 After examining the evidence presented at the hearing for temporary orders in which the parties had adequate opportunity to prepare and be heard:
- there is a likelihood that on final hearing the court will not approve the intended relocation of the child(ren).
 - no circumstances exist sufficient to warrant a relocation of the child(ren) prior to a final determination at trial.
 - there is a likelihood that on final hearing the court will approve the intended relocation of the child(ren).
- 2.4 Further, the court finds that the nonmoving party is absent and a) is on active duty as a National Guard member or Reservist residing in Washington, or b) is a dependent of a National Guard member or Reservist residing in Washington on active duty. Despite the service member's or dependent's absence, failure to enter the temporary orders below would result in manifest injustice to the other interested parties.
