Income Withholding (Garnishment) Limit – If all payments are made on time, the judgment debtor's wages will not be garnished for any amount over what is needed to cover current child support plus the past due support judgment payment amount listed in this section.

Money over the garnishment limit can be taken from bonuses and other payments that are not wages. The state may still use other ways of collecting this judgment, including collection through the IRS.

Warning! If any payment is late, this payment plan is cancelled and the state or the person owed support may collect more than the amount listed above.

11. Enforcement of judgment through income withholding (garnishment)

Does not apply because no money judgment is ordered in section 9 above.

The money judgment in section 9 above can be enforced through income withholding (garnishment).

DCS or the person owed money from the judgment can collect the judgment from the wages, earnings, assets or benefits of the parent who owes the judgment, and can enforce liens against real or personal property as allowed by any state's child support laws without notice to the parent who owes the judgment.

If this judgment is not being enforced by DCS and the person owed the judgment wants to have support paid directly from the employer, the person owed support must ask the court to sign a separate wage assignment order requiring the employer to withhold wages and make payments. (Chapter 26.18 RCW.)

Income withholding may be delayed until a payment becomes past due if the court finds good reason to delay.

- Does not apply. There is no good reason to delay income withholding.
- Income withholding will be delayed until a payment becomes past due because (check one):
  - The child support payments are enforced by DCS and there are good reasons in the children’s best interest not to withhold income at this time. If this is a case about changing child support, previously ordered child support has been paid on time.
List the good reasons here: _____
  - The child support payments are not enforced by DCS and there are good reasons not to withhold income at this time.

<input type="checkbox"/> Lawyer fees			$	$
