Order to Release Weapons (ORRW)

(Optional Use)

A Motion for an Order to Release Weapons was filed. The court considered the motion and relevant court records; and the court finds that the order against the restrained person/defendant (name) _____ has ended and no other orders are in effect under this cause number.

There are no longer any restraints in this case prohibiting the restrained person/defendant from accessing, possessing or owning firearms, other dangerous weapons, or a concealed pistol license.

The _____ (local law enforcement agency) shall return the firearms, other dangerous weapons, and concealed pistol license to the restrained person/defendant, but only if there are no other disqualifications that prohibit the restrained person/defendant from possessing the firearms, other dangerous weapons, and concealed pistol license. If the restrained person/defendant does not provide a copy of this order to the local law enforcement agency, the agency may dispose of the firearms as unclaimed property pursuant to statute.

Obtaining your firearms:

A background check is performed prior to all firearm releases, even voluntary surrenders. Since federal, state and local laws prohibit certain persons from possessing firearms, it is possible that the firearm/s may not be returned to you, even if the matter for which you are surrendering them is resolved in your favor.

1. When you come to claim your firearm/s, bring government-issued photo identification (driver's license, identification card, military identification, passport, etc). Firearms will not be released without identification.
2. Firearms will only be released to the restrained person/defendant named on the Order to Release Weapons or an authorized representative of that person.

Obtaining your concealed pistol license:

Your concealed pistol license will not be returned to you until the law enforcement agency determines you are eligible to possess a firearm under state and federal law and you meet the other requirements to be eligible for a concealed pistol license under RCW 9.41.070.

See RCW 9.41.345 for additional requirements.
