Motion to Allow Testimony (About Modifying Child Support)

To both parties:

Deadline! Your papers must be filed and served by the deadline in your county's Local Court Rules, or by the State Court Rules if there is no local rule. Court Rules and forms are online at www.courts.wa.gov.

If you want the court to consider your side, you must:

- File your original documents with the Superior Court Clerk; AND
- Give the Judge/Commissioner a copy of your papers (if required by your county's Local Court Rules); AND
- Have a copy of your papers served on all other parties or their lawyers; AND
- Go to the hearing.

The court may not allow you to testify at the motion hearing. Read your county's Local Court Rules, if any.

Bring proposed orders to the hearing.

To the person filing this motion:

You must schedule a hearing on this motion. You may use the Notice of Hearing (form FL All Family 185) unless your county's Local Court Rules require a different form. Contact the court for scheduling information.

To the person receiving this motion:

If you do not agree with the requests in this motion, file a Response to Motion to Allow Testimony (form FL Modify 504) explaining why the court should not approve those requests. You may file other written proof supporting your side.

1.	I ar	n the (check one): Petitioner Respondent in this case.
2.		sk the court to allow testimony about modifying the Child Support Order because the art needs to hear testimony to make a fair decision.
3.	Thi	s is an extraordinary case because (check all that apply):
		There are substantial questions of credibility on a major issue. (List the major issue and reasons why the court should not rely on the information provided.):
		The information gathered through the discovery process is inconsistent, or is not complete. More discovery will not solve this problem. (Explain):
		There are very complex issues in this case that require an expert witness to testify. (Explain):
