Petitioner/s (as listed on the parenting/custody order):	No
And Respondent/s (as listed on the parenting/custody order):	Motion for Temporary Order Allowing Move with Children (Relocation) (MTAM)

Motion for Temporary Order Allowing Move with Children (Relocation)

To both parties:

Deadline! Your papers must be filed and served by the deadline in your county's Local Court Rules, or by the State Court Rules if there is no local rule. Court Rules and forms are online at www.courts.wa.gov.

If you want the court to consider your side, you must:

- File your original documents with the Superior Court Clerk; AND
- Give the Judge/Commissioner a copy of your papers (if required by your county's Local Court Rules); AND
- Have a copy of your papers served on all other parties or their lawyers; AND
- Go to the hearing.

The court may not allow you to testify at the motion hearing. Read your county's Local Court Rules, if any.

Bring proposed orders to the hearing.

To the person filing this motion:

You must schedule a hearing on this motion. You may use the Notice of Hearing (form FL All Family 185) unless your county's Local Court Rules require a different form. Contact the court for scheduling information.

To the person receiving this motion:

If you do not agree with the requests in this motion, file a statement (using form FL All Family 135, Declaration) explaining why the court should not approve those requests. You may file other written proof supporting your side.

Notice of Intent to Move with Children was (check one):
served by the legal deadline, and proof of service of that Notice has already been filed or is being filed now.
not served by the legal deadline or not served at all. The Court should let the children move now even though notice was late or not given at all because (explain):
ove likely to be approved sk the Court to allow me to move with the children before the trial. The move is likely to approved at trial based on the factors in RCW 26.09.520, as explained in my Response Objection. The children (check one):
spend substantially equal time with each parent (45 percent or more). It is in the children's best interest to move with me.
live with me most of the time. The law presumes that the move will be allowed. The objecting person can only prevent the move if s/he can show that the move would cause more harm than good to the children and me. The objecting person will not be able to show this.
eason for moving now xplain why you want to move before the trial):

		is covered by the [ ] state [ ] federal Service Members' Civil Relief Act.
		[ ] For persons covered only by the state act — Military duty may keep the service member or dependent from responding or coming to the hearing on this motion. I ask the court to approve temporary orders even if the covered person asks for a stay or doesn't respond. It would be very unfair (a manifest injustice) not to make temporary orders now because:
