6. Imputed Income

To calculate child support, the court may impute income to a parent:

- whose income is unknown, or
- who the court finds is unemployed or under-employed by choice.

Imputed income is not actual income. It is an assigned amount the court finds a parent could or should be earning. (RCW 26.19.071(6))

7. Limits affecting the monthly child support amount

Does not apply. The monthly amount was not affected by the upper or lower limits in RCW 26.19.065.

The monthly amount has been affected by (check all that apply):

low-income limits. The self-support reserve and presumptive minimum payment have been calculated in the Worksheets, lines 8.a. - c.

the 45% net income limit. The court finds that the paying parent’s child support obligations for his/her biological and legal children are more than 45% of his/her net income (Worksheets, line 18). Based on the children’s best interests and the parents’ circumstances, it is (check one): fair. not fair to apply the 45% limit. (Describe both parents’ situations):

Combined Monthly Net Income over $12,000. Together the parents earn more than $12,000 per month (Worksheets line 4). The child support amount (check one):

is the presumptive amount from the economic table.

is more than the presumptive amount from the economic table because (specify):

8. Standard Calculation

The standard calculation for the parent paying support is $_____. This is from (check one):

The Attachment for Residential Split Adjustment (Arvey calculation), line G (form WSCSS–Attachment for RSA). This Attachment to the Child Support Schedule Worksheets is approved by the court and made part of this order.

Other calculation (specify method and attach Worksheet/s): _____

9. Deviation from standard calculation

Should the monthly child support amount be different from the standard calculation?

- No – The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is the same as the standard calculation listed in section 8 because (check one):
- Neither parent asked for a deviation from the standard calculation. (Skip to 10.)
 - There is no good reason to approve the deviation requested by (name/s): _____
The facts supporting this decision are (check all that apply):
 - detailed in the Worksheets, Part VIII, lines 20 through 26.
 - the parent asking for a deviation:
 - has a new spouse or domestic partner with income of $_____.
 - lives in a household where other adults have income of $_____.
 - has income from overtime or a 2nd job that was excluded in section 5 above.
 - other (specify): _____
- Yes – The monthly child support amount ordered in section 10 is different from the standard calculation listed in section 8 because (check all that apply):
- A parent or parents in this case has:
 - children from other relationships.
 - paid or received child support for children from other relationships.
 - gifts, prizes or other assets.
 - income that is not regular (non-recurring income) such as bonuses, overtime, etc.
 - unusual unplanned debt (extraordinary debt not voluntarily incurred).
 - tax planning considerations that will not reduce the economic benefit to the children.
 - very different living costs, which are beyond their control.
 - The children in this case:
 - spend significant time with the parent who owes support. The non-standard amount still gives the other parent's household enough money for the children's basic needs. The children do not get public assistance (TANF).
 - have extraordinary income.
 - have special needs because of a disability.
 - have special medical, educational, or psychological needs.
 - There are (or will be) costs for court-ordered reunification or a voluntary placement agreement.
 - The parent who owes support has shown it is not fair to have to pay the $50 per child presumptive minimum payment.

The parent who is owed support has shown it is not fair to apply the self-support reserve (calculated on lines 8.a. – c. of the Worksheets).

Other reasons: _____

The facts that support the reasons checked above are (check all that apply):

detailed in the Worksheets, Part VIII, lines 20 through 26.

the parent asking for a deviation:

has a new spouse or domestic partner with income of $ _____.

lives in a household where other adults have income of $ _____.

has income from overtime or a 2nd job that was excluded in section 5 above.

as follows: _____

10. Monthly child support amount (transfer payment)

After considering the standard calculation in section 8, and whether or not to apply a deviation in section 9, the court orders the following monthly child support amount (transfer payment).

(Name): _____ must pay child support to (name): _____ each month as follows for the children listed below (add lines for additional children if needed):

Child's Name	Age	Amount
1.		$
2.		$
3.		$
4.		$
5.		$
Total monthly child support amount:		$

Child turning twelve years old – The monthly amount for (child's name) _____ will change to $ _____ starting with the month this child turns twelve (month, year): _____.

Residential Split – Each parent has at least one of the children from this relationship living with him/her most of the time. (Name): _____ must pay child support to (name): _____ each month as follows:

Total monthly child support amount: **$

11. Starting date and payment schedule

The monthly child support amount must be paid starting (month, year): _____ on the following payment schedule:

- in one payment each month by the ____ day of the month.
 - in two payments each month: ½ by the ____ and ½ by the ____ day of the month.
 - other (specify): _____

12. Step Increase (for modifications or adjustments only)

- Does not apply.
- Approved – The court is changing a final child support order. The monthly child support amount is increasing by more than 30% from the last final child support order. This causes significant financial hardship to the parent who owes support, so the increase will be applied in two equal steps:
 - For six months from the Starting Date in section 11 above, the monthly child support amount will be the old monthly amount plus ½ of the increase, for a total of $_____ each month.
 - On (date): _____, six months after the Starting Date in section 11, the monthly child support amount will be the full amount listed in section 10.
- Denied – The court is changing a final child support order (check one):
 - but the monthly payment increased by less than 30%.
 - and the monthly payment increased by more than 30%, but this does not cause a significant hardship to the parent who owes support.

13. Periodic Adjustment

- Child support may be changed according to state law. The Court is not ordering a specific periodic adjustment schedule below.
- Any party may ask the court to adjust child support periodically on the following schedule without showing a substantial change of circumstances:

The Motion to Adjust Child Support Order may be filed:

- every ____ months.
 - on (date/s): _____
 - other (describe condition or event): _____

Important! A party must file a Motion to Adjust Child Support Order (form FL Modify 521), and the court must approve a new Child Support Order for any adjustment to take effect.

- Deadlines, if any (for example, deadline to exchange financial information, deadline to file the motion): _____

14. Payment Method (check either Registry or Direct Pay)

- Registry – Send payment to the Washington State Support Registry. The Division of Child Support (DCS) will forward the payments to the person owed support and keep records of all payments.

Address for payment: Washington State Support Registry
PO Box 45868, Olympia, WA 98504

Phone number/s: 1 (800) 922-4306 or 1 (800) 442-5437

Important! If you are ordered to send your support payments to the Washington State Support Registry, and you pay some other person or organization, you will not get credit for your payment.

DCS Enforcement (if Registry is checked above):

- DCS will enforce this order because (check all that apply):
 - this is a public assistance case.
 - one of the parties has already asked DCS for services.
 - one of the parties has asked for DCS services by signing the application statement at the end of this order (above the Warnings).
- DCS will not enforce this order unless one of the parties applies for DCS services or the children go on public assistance.

Direct Pay – Send payment to the other parent or non-parent custodian by:

mail to: _____
street address or PO box city state zip or any new address the person owed support provides to the parent who owes support. (This does not have to be his/her home address.)

other method: _____

15. Enforcement through income withholding (garnishment)

DCS or the person owed support can collect the support owed from the wages, earnings, assets or benefits of the parent who owes support, and can enforce liens against real or personal property as allowed by any state's child support laws without notice to the parent who owes the support.

If this order is not being enforced by DCS and the person owed support wants to have support paid directly from the employer, the person owed support must ask the court to sign a separate wage assignment order requiring the employer to withhold wages and make payments. (Chapter 26.18 RCW.)

Income withholding may be delayed until a payment becomes past due if the court finds good reason to delay.

- Does not apply. There is no good reason to delay income withholding.
- Income withholding will be delayed until a payment becomes past due because (check one):
 - the child support payments are enforced by DCS and there are good reasons in the children's best interest not to withhold income at this time. If this is a case about changing child support, previously ordered child support has been paid on time.

List the good reasons here: _____

- the child support payments are not enforced by DCS and there are good reasons not to withhold income at this time.

List the good reasons here: _____

- the court has approved the parents' written agreement for a different payment arrangement.

16. End date for support

Support must be paid for each child until (check one):

- the court signs a different order, if this is a temporary order.
- the child turns 18 or is no longer enrolled in high school, whichever happens last, unless the court makes a different order in section 17.
- the child turns 18 or is otherwise emancipated, unless the court makes a different order in section 17.
- after (child's name): _____ turns 18. Based on information available to the court, it is expected that this child will be unable to support him/herself and will remain dependent past the age of 18. Support must be paid until (check one):
- this child is able to support him/herself and is no longer dependent on the parents.
- other: _____
- other (specify): _____

17. Post-secondary educational support (for college or vocational school)

- Reserved – A parent or non-parent custodian may ask the court for post-secondary educational support at a later date without showing a substantial change of circumstances by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modify 501). The Petition must be filed before child support ends as listed in section 16.
- Granted – The parents must pay for the children's post-secondary educational support. Post-secondary educational support may include support for the period after high school and before college or vocational school begins. The amount or percentage each person must pay (check one):
- will be decided later. The parties may make a written agreement or ask the court to set the amount or percentage by filing a Petition to Modify Child Support Order (form FL Modify 501).
- is as follows (specify): _____
- Denied – The request for post-secondary educational support is denied.
- Other (specify): _____

18. Claiming children as dependents on tax forms

- Does not apply.
- The parties have the right to claim the children as their dependents on their tax forms as follows (check one):

- Every year – (name): _____
has the right to claim (children’s names): _____;
and (name): _____
has the right to claim (children’s names): _____.
- Alternating – (name): _____ has the right to claim the children for (check one): even odd years. The other parent has the right to claim the children for the opposite years.
- Other (specify): _____

For tax years when a non-custodial parent has the right to claim the children, the parents must cooperate to fill out and submit IRS Form 8332 in a timely manner.

19. Medical Support

Important! Read the Medical Support Warnings at the end of this order. Medical Support includes health insurance (both public and private) and cash payments towards premiums and uninsured medical expenses.

- The court is not ordering how health care coverage must be provided for the children because the court does not have enough information to determine the availability of accessible health care coverage for the children (coverage that could be used for the children’s primary care). The law requires every parent to provide or pay for medical support. The Division of Child Support (DCS) or any parent can enforce this requirement. (Skip to 20.)
 - Private health insurance ordered. (Name): _____ must pay the premium to provide health insurance coverage for the children. The court has considered the needs of the children, the cost and extent of coverage, and the accessibility of coverage.
 - The other parent must pay his/her proportional share* of the premium paid. Health insurance premiums (check one):
 - are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.
 - are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.
- * Proportional share is each parent’s percentage share of the combined net income from line 6 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.
- The other parent is not ordered to pay for any part of the children’s insurance because (explain): _____

A parent cannot be excused from providing health insurance coverage through an employer or union solely because the child receives public health care coverage.

- A parent has been ordered to pay an amount that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19). The court finds this is in the children's best interest because: _____

Neither parent can be ordered to pay an amount towards health care coverage premiums that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19) unless the court finds it is in the best interest of the children.

- Public health care coverage. (Name): _____ has enrolled the child in public health care coverage, and does not have available at no cost accessible health insurance coverage through an employer or union.
- The other parent must enroll the child in accessible health insurance coverage through their employer or union up to 25% of their basic support obligation.
- The other parent must pay his/her proportional share* of the premium for public health care coverage for the child. Public health care premiums (check one):
- are included on the Worksheets (line 14). No separate payment is needed.
 - are not included on the Worksheets. Separate payment is needed. A parent or non-parent custodian may ask DCS or the court to enforce payment for the proportional share.
- * Proportional share is each parent's percentage share of the combined net income from line 6 of the Child Support Schedule Worksheets.
- The other parent is not ordered to pay for any part of the children's health care coverage because (explain): _____

A parent cannot be excused from providing health insurance coverage through an employer or union solely because the child receives public health care coverage.

- A parent has been ordered to pay an amount that is more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (Worksheets, line 19). The court finds this is in the children's best interest because: _____
- Other (specify): _____
- _____
- _____

20. Health care coverage if circumstances change or court has not ordered

If the parties' circumstances change, or if the court is not ordering how health care coverage must be provided for the children in section 19:

- A parent, non-parent custodian, or DCS can enforce the medical support requirement.
- If a parent does not provide proof of accessible health care coverage (coverage that can be used for the children's primary care), that parent must:
 - Get (or keep) insurance through his/her work or union, unless the insurance costs more than 25% of his/her basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets),
 - Pay his/her share of the other parent's monthly premium up to 25% of his/her basic support obligation (line 19 of the Worksheets), or

- Pay his/her share of the monthly cost of any public health care coverage, such as Apple Health or Medicaid, which is assigned to the state.

21. Children’s expenses not included in the monthly child support amount Uninsured medical expenses – Each parent is responsible for a share of uninsured medical expenses as ordered below. Uninsured medical expenses include premiums, co-pays, deductibles, and other health care costs not paid by health care coverage.

If you are ordered to provide children's health care coverage...

You have 20 days from the date of this order to send:

- proof that the children are covered, or
- proof that health care coverage is not available as ordered.

Send your proof to the other parent or to the Support Registry (if your payments go there).

If you do not provide proof of health care coverage:

- The other parent or the support agency may contact your employer or union, without notifying you, to ask for direct enforcement of this order (RCW 26.18.170), and
- The other parent may:
 - Ask the Division of Child Support (DCS) for help,
 - Ask the court for a contempt order, or
 - File a Petition in court.

Don't cancel your employer or union health insurance for your children unless the court approves or your job ends and you no longer qualify for insurance as ordered in section 19.

If an insurer sends you payment for a medical provider's service:

- you must send it to the medical provider if the provider has not been paid; or
- you must send the payment to whoever paid the provider if someone else paid the provider; or
- you may keep the payment if you paid the provider.

If the children have public health care coverage, the state can make you pay for the cost of the monthly premium.

Always inform the Support Registry and any parent if your access to health care coverage changes or ends.
