Petitioner lives in (county): _____ (state): _____

Respondent lives in (county): _____ (state): _____

We were married on (date): _____ at (city and state): _____.

Our domestic partnership was registered with the State of _____ on (date): _____, and:

it converted into a marriage by law on June 30, 2014. (RCW 26.60.100.)

We currently live in the same household.

We began living in separate households on (date): _____.

3. Request to invalidate

I ask the court to invalidate (annul) our marriage because (check all that apply):

We are close relatives who are not allowed to marry under the law. (RCW 26.04.020)

One or both of us was not old enough to get married legally. We did not have legal permission from a court or parent. We did not voluntarily live together as a couple (cohabit) after we were both old enough to legally marry.

- One or both of us was legally married to or the registered domestic partner of another person at the time we married each other.
- At the time we married, one or both of us was unable to understand what it meant (lacked capacity to consent) either because of mental incapacity or the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other substances. We did not voluntarily live together as a couple (cohabit) after we both were able to understand and agree to be married.
- One of us married because of pressure, force, or fraud. We did not voluntarily live together as a couple (cohabit) after the pressure or force stopped, or after finding out about the fraud.
- We were not married in Washington State. According to the laws of the place where we were married, our marriage is void or voidable. We have not done anything to validate our marriage according to the laws of:

3a. Divorce or legal separation, if valid

If the court finds that my marriage is valid (denies my request to invalidate), then (check one)

- I am not asking for a divorce or legal separation.
- I ask the court for a divorce – to dissolve our marriage and any domestic partnerships or civil unions. This marriage is irretrievably broken. Our marital community ended on (check one):

 - one of us moved to a separate household.
 - we separated our assets and debts.
 - we agreed the marital community ended.
 - other (specify): _____

4. Jurisdiction over the spouses

The court has personal jurisdiction over the marriage because at least one of the spouses lives in Washington State, or is stationed in this state as a member of the armed forces.

- The court has jurisdiction over the Respondent because (check all that apply):
 - The Respondent lives in Washington State.

- The Petitioner and Respondent lived in Washington State while they were married, and the Petitioner still lives in this state or is stationed in this state as a member of the armed forces.
- The Petitioner and Respondent may have conceived a child together in this state.

5. Is one of the spouses pregnant?

(Check one):

- No Yes

If Yes, who is pregnant?

- Petitioner
- Respondent

Note: The law considers the other spouse to be the parent of any child born during the marriage or within 300 days after it ends. If the other spouse is not the parent, either spouse or the other parent may file a Petition to Decide Parentage (form FL Parentage 301) in court. In most cases, the deadline to file the Petition to Decide Parentage is before the child turns 4. (See RCW 26.26A.115, 26.26A.435 – 26.26.625.)

If everyone agrees, both spouses and the child's other parent can sign an Acknowledgment (and Denial) of Parentage. Those forms must be filed with the Washington State Registrar of Vital Statistics to be valid.

6. Children of the marriage

7. Jurisdiction over the children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

Does not apply. My spouse and I have no children together who are still dependent.

The court can approve a Parenting Plan for the children my spouse and I have together because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write “the children” instead of listing names):

Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children’s names): _____.

Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children’s home state because (check all that apply):

(Children’s names): _____
lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children are less than 6 months old, they have lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.

There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they are less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.

(Children’s names): _____
do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children’s home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.

(Children’s names): _____
do not have another home state.

No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children’s names): _____

_____’
or a court in the children’s home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
- There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children’s care, protection, education and relationships in this state.

Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children’s names): _____’s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.

Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for (children’s names): _____ because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or the children’s parent, brother, or sister) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):

A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the Petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).

There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date): _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.

Other reason (specify): _____

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

8. Parenting Plan

My spouse and I have no children together who are under 18 years old.
