Petitioner (person who started this case):

And Respondent (other domestic partner):

_____

No. _____

Petition to Invalidate (Annul) Registered Domestic Partnership
(PTIN)

Petition to Invalidate (Annul)
Registered Domestic Partnership

Use this form only if your domestic partnership was registered with a state (not a city or county).

Do not use this form if you are married or have a state registered domestic partnership that converted into a marriage by law on June 30, 2014. Use the Petition to Invalidate (Annul) Marriage, form FL Divorce 205, instead.

1. Information about the parties

Petitioner lives in (county): _____ (state): _____

Respondent lives in (county): _____ (state): _____

2. Information about the domestic partnership (check all that apply):

We registered our domestic partnership in the State of: _____ on (date): _____.

At that time, we lived in (city and state): _____.

We currently live in the same household.

We began living in separate households on (date): _____.

3. Request to invalidate

I ask the court to invalidate (annul) our domestic partnership because (check all that apply):

- We are close relatives who are not allowed to become registered domestic partners under the law. (RCW 26.60.030)
- We did not meet the age requirements for a domestic partnership because at the time we registered (check all that apply):
  - one of us was under age 18.
  - we were both under age 62.
- One or both of us was legally married to or the registered domestic partner of another person at the time we registered our domestic partnership with each other.
- At the time we registered, one or both of us was unable to understand what it meant (lacked capacity to consent) either because of mental incapacity or the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other substances. We did not voluntarily live together as a couple (cohabit) after we both were able to understand and agree to be registered domestic partners.
- One of us agreed to become registered domestic partners because of pressure, force, or fraud. We did not voluntarily live together as a couple (cohabit) after the pressure or force stopped, or after finding out about the fraud.
- We did not register our domestic partnership in Washington state. According to the laws of the place where we registered our domestic partnership, our domestic partnership is void or voidable. We have not done anything to validate our domestic partnership according to the laws of:
  - the place where we registered, or
  - any place where we lived after leaving the place where we registered.

4. Jurisdiction over the partners

The court has personal jurisdiction over the domestic partnership because at least one of the partners lives in Washington State, or is stationed in this state as a member of the armed forces.

- The court has jurisdiction over the Respondent because (check all that apply):
  - The Respondent lives in Washington State.
  - The Petitioner and Respondent lived in Washington State while they were registered domestic partners, and the Petitioner still lives in this state or is stationed in this state as a member of the armed forces.
  - The Petitioner and Respondent may have conceived a child together in this state.
  - Other (specify): _____
- The court does not have personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (This may limit the court's ability to divide property and debts, award money, set child support or maintenance, or approve a restraining order or protection order.)

5. Is one of the partners pregnant?

(Check one):

No  Yes

If Yes, who is pregnant?

Petitioner

Respondent

Note: The law considers the other partner to be the parent of any child born during the registered domestic partnership or within 300 days after it ends. If the other partner is not the parent, either partner may file a Petition to Decide Parentage (form FL Parentage 301) in court. In most cases, the deadline to file the Petition to Decide Parentage is before the child turns four. (See RCW 26.26A.115, 26.26A.435.)

If everyone agrees, both partners and the child's biological father can sign an Acknowledgment (and Denial) of Parentage. Those forms must be notarized and filed with the Washington State Registrar of Vital Statistics to be valid.

6. Children of the domestic partnership

My domestic partner and I have no children together who are still dependent. (Skip to 7.)

7. Jurisdiction over the children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

Does not apply. My domestic partner and I have no children together who are still dependent.

The court can approve a Parenting Plan for the children my domestic partner and I have together because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write “the children” instead of listing names):

- Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children's names): _____.
- Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children's home state because (check all that apply):
- (Children's names)*: _____ lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children are less than 6 months old, they have lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.
  - There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they are less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.
  - (Children's names)*: _____ do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children's home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.
  - (Children's names)*: _____ do not have another home state.
- No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children's names): _____, or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:
- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
  - There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education and relationships in this state.
- Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): _____'s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.
- Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for (children's names): _____ because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or the children's parent, brother or sister) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):
- A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the Petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).
  - There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date): _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.
- Other reason (specify): _____

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

8. Parenting Plan

My domestic partner and I have no children together who are under 18 years old.

I ask the court to order a Parenting Plan for the children my partner and I have together. I will file and serve my proposed Parenting Plan (form FL All Family 140) (check one):

at the same time as this Petition.

later.

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

9. Child Support

My domestic partner and I have no children together who are still dependent.

Court Order – I ask the court to order child support (including medical support) according to state law for the children my partner and I have together. (You may ask for a court order of child support even if there is already an administrative order. The court order will replace the administrative order to the extent the court order is different.)

I ask the court to order my partner to pay his/her proportionate share of (check all that apply):

day care expenses

long-distance transportation expenses

education expenses

post-secondary (college or vocational school) support

other child-related expenses (specify): _____

I ask the court to order that we have the right to claim the children as dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on our tax forms as follows (describe): _____

Important! Although the personal tax exemptions are currently suspended through tax year 2025, other tax benefits may flow from claiming a child as dependent.

Administrative Order – There is no need for the court to make a child support order. The DSHS Division of Child Support (DCS) has already established an administrative child support order for the children my partner and I have together in DCS case number/s: _____. I am not asking the court to make a different child support order.

DCS child support orders do not cover tax exemptions or post-secondary (college or vocational school) support. Because these issues are not in the administrative order, I ask the court to order (check all that apply):

we have the right to claim the children as dependents for purposes of personal tax exemptions and associated tax credits on our tax forms as follows (describe): _____
