- disprove a presumed parent as a legal parent
- confirm a presumed parent is a legal parent
- challenge an Acknowledgment or Denial of Parentage
- confirm an intended parent by assisted reproduction (not surrogacy)

➤ Parentage

1. Petitioner asks the court to decide who are the legal parent/s of the child listed below.
2. Child

Child's name (first, middle, last)	Born (month/day/year)	Lives in (county and state)

Important! Don't list more than one child unless they have all the same parents or possible parents. If they have (or may) have different parents, fill out a separate Petition for each child. If multiple children are listed, change "child" to "children" in this form as needed.

3. Petitioner

Petitioner's Name (first, middle, last)	Lives in (county and state)

Petitioner's relationship to child (check one):

- Birth Parent – I am this child's parent because I gave birth to the child.
- Possible Genetic Parent – I may be this child's parent because I had sex with the child's birth parent between (starting and ending dates): _____ when the child was likely conceived.
- Presumed Parent (by marriage, domestic partnership, or holding out) – I am presumed by law to be this child's parent because:
 - I was married to or registered domestic partners with the birth parent (name): _____ when the child was born, or within the 300 days before the child was born.
 - I believed I was in a valid marriage or registered domestic partnership with the birth parent (name): _____ when the child was born, or within the 300 days before the child was born, even though the marriage or partnership was or could have been invalidated by a court.
 - After* the child was born, I married or became registered domestic partners with the birth parent (name): _____ (or believed my marriage or partnership was valid, even if it was or could have been invalidated). I willingly said I was the child's parent and I (check at least one):
 - agreed to be and am listed as the parent on the child's birth record.
 - filed a statement (assertion) claiming I was the child's parent with the state registrar of vital statistics.
 - I lived in the same home as the child and openly held him/her out as my own child for the first 4 years of the child's life. (List examples that show how you treated this child as if s/he were your own.)

- Acknowledged Parent – I am this child's parent because I signed an Acknowledgment of Parentage that was filed with the state registrar of vital statistics.
- Person who signed a Denial of Parentage – I am not a legal parent of this child now because I signed a Denial of Parentage that was filed with the state registrar of vital statistics along with an Acknowledgment of Parentage that said someone else was the child's parent. I am filing this case to challenge that Denial and become a legal parent again.
- Intended Parent by Assisted Reproduction – I am this child's parent because I consented to assisted reproduction with Respondent with the intent that we both be parents.

8. Presumed Parent, if any (by marriage, domestic partnership, or holding out)

Reason/s for challenge – I signed the Acknowledgment or Denial of Parentage because of (check all that apply):

- Person not included in a court decision – A court has already decided that Respondents are the parents of this child. I was not a party to that court case and received no notice about that court case. I believe I am this child’s parent.

Deadline – I am filing or serving this petition before the legal deadline, which is within four years of the date a court decided parentage.

Request to go forward – I ask the court to allow this case to go forward because it is in the best interest of the child.

Important! Petitioner must file a Motion to Permit Proceeding (by a person not included in the Acknowledgment or Court Decision) form FL Parentage 304. If the court does not find that it is in the child’s best interest to proceed, the petition must be dismissed.

18. Jurisdiction over the child (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

- The court can decide a Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule for the child and decide who the child should live with most of the time because:
 - Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the child, and the court still has authority to make other orders for the child.
 - Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the child’s home state because (check all that apply):
 - The child lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the child is less than 6 months old, the child has lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.
 - There were times the child was not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if the child is less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.
 - The child does not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the child’s home state some time in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the child still lives in Washington.
 - The child does not have another home state.
 - No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for the child or a court in the child’s home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:
 - The child and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
 - There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the child’s care, protection, education and relationships in this state.
 - Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be the child’s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.
 - Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for the child because the child is in this state now and was abandoned here or needs emergency protection because the child (or the child’s parent, brother or sister) was abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):
 - A custody case involving the child was filed in the child’s home state (name of state or tribe): _____. Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the child until the Petitioner can get a court order from the child’s home state (or tribe).
 - There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the child’s home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the child’s home state (or tribe) by the time the child has been in Washington for 6 months, (date): _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the child.
 - Other reason (specify): _____

- The court cannot decide a Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule for the child or decide who the child should live with most of the time because the court does not have jurisdiction over the child.

19. Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule

The child currently lives with (name/s): _____.

- I ask the court for a Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule. I will file and serve my proposed Parenting Plan (FL All Family 140) or Residential Schedule (FL Parentage 304) with this Petition or in the future.
- I am not asking the court for a Parenting Plan or Residential Schedule.
