	Court of Washington, County of
Petitioner	VS.	Date of Birth	No Order for Service of Summons by Publication (ORPUB)
Respondent		Date of Birth	, ,

Order for Service of Summons by Publication

The court considered the evidence presented by Petitioner and finds that personal, electronic, or mail service on Respondent or another necessary party:

- [] was unsuccessful.
- [] was not possible, due to a lack of any known physical or electronic address of the respondent.

The court orders that the Petition for Protection Order and Temporary Protection Order (or Notice of Hearing, if no temporary order was issued) be served on:

- [] Respondent
- [] (Name)_____

by publication of the Summons by Publication (form PO 028) in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the petition was brought and (if different) in the county of the last known address of the person/s being served once a week for 3 consecutive weeks. The newspaper selected must be 1 of the 3 most widely circulated papers in the county.

The cost of publication will be paid by Petitioner.

[] Electronic Service (if electronic service was attempted and not verified). Petitioner must also have the petition, temporary order, and any supporting materials served electronically to the following known electronic addresses:

Ordered.	•
Date	Judge or Commissioner
Presented by Petitioner or their lawyer	Print Judge or Commissioner Name
Sign here	Print name (if lawyer, also provide WSBA #)