

SUPREME COURT SYMPOSIUM

REENTRY: DO WE REALLY CARE ABOUT PEOPLE

SUCCEEDING AFTER PRISON?

Sponsored by: The Washington State Minority and Justice Commission
& Seattle University School of Law

PROGRAM AGENDA

MAY 28, 2015

8:30 A.M.

Opening Remarks

Justice Mary Yu, Co-Chair of the Minority and Justice Commission
Dean Annette Clark, Seattle University School of Law

Lessons Learned: The Boston Reentry Study

Rhiana Kohl, Ph.D.
Massachusetts Department of Corrections

A Closer Look at Washington

Katherine Beckett, Ph.D.
University of Washington

9:35 A.M.

Barriers to Success

Financial Obligations

Alexes Harris, Ph.D.
University of Washington

Housing, Employment & Education

Merf Ehman, J.D.
Columbia Legal Services

Family Reunification

Elizabeth Hendren, J.D., Northwest
Justice Project & Lillian Hewko, J.D.,
Washington Defender Association

10:30 A.M.

Break

10:40 A.M.

Beyond the Jargon: Revealing the Real Impact of Reentry

Panelists: Justin Pimsanguan, Kimberly Mays, Clinton Taylor, & Tom Nicewaner

Moderated by: Vanessa Hernandez, J.D., ACLU of Washington &

Seattle University Law Students: Whitney Hill, Jennifer Schnell, Joshua Treybig & Erin Lecocq

11:25 A.M.

Despite the Barriers, We Have Hope

Pioneer Human Services

Karen Lee, J.D.
CEO

The STAR Project

Glenna Awbrey, M.A. M.Sc.
Executive Director

The IF Project

Detective Kim Bogucki
Seattle Police
Department

Washington Department of

Corrections
Dan Pacholke &
Devon Schrum

12:25 P.M.

Closing Remarks

Judge Veronica Alicea-Galvan, King County Superior Court

Please Join Us For a Reception in the Chief Justice's Reception Room